WHAT I WILL REMEMBER MOST?

I think I will remember the moment right after we performed at competition this year the most. It's impossible to describe the feeling after that performance but I can say that I already had the chills before we left the stage. It was my first and last time, so I'm glad we did so well!

ADVICE FOR THE NEXT GENERATION OF DANCER?

I think we all have days where we feel discouraged or disappointed; I know I've definitely had my fair share of hard times as a dancer who started in high school. While it may not feel good in the moment, that pain proves that you still care and are passionate about what you do. You just need to redirect it to motivate yourself.

WHAT I WILL REMEMBER MOST?

The intertwining Lore me and Eli Dermott made for Epic dance studios and its inhabitants.

ADVICE FOR THE NEXT GENERATION OF DANCER?

Consistency is key, work hard and you'll continue to grow; consistency and hard-work beats talent every single time. Additionally, freestyle is the best way to hone your personal style.
